

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT (NDA)

This Agreement is made and entered into as of this 1st day of September, 2026 ("Effective Date") between Mr Ivan Akandwanaho, CEO & Managing Director of and on behalf of CODESPHERE INNOVATIONS (U) LIMITED, a company incorporated under the laws of Uganda, with its principal place of business at Kampala ("Recipient"); and Drs Oluwadamilola A. T. Haastrup & Oluwatosin O. O. Haastrup ("Discloser").

I. BACKGROUND

The Discloser and the Recipient wish to disclose certain confidential information to each other for the purpose of the engineering and deployment of a digital Clinical Case Management Platform. The parties agree to protect this information as set out below.

II. AGREEMENT

1. Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any information (including, without limitation, data, documents, images, prototypes, designs, plans, drawings, trade secrets, business strategies, financial data, or other materials, including combinations of individual items of information) disclosed by the Discloser to the Recipient before, on, or after the Effective Date, whether in written, oral, visual, electronic, or other form, and whether or not explicitly designated as "confidential" at the time of disclosure. Specifically, to also include:

- Technical specifications, software architectures, source code, and UI/UX design prototypes for the Clinical Management Platform;
- Clinical workflows, patient data structures, and healthcare management logic;
- Business plans, financial projections, capital investment analysis, and pricing strategies;
- Any information designated as "Confidential" or which, under the circumstances surrounding disclosure, ought to be treated as confidential.

Confidential Information may also include information of a third party that is in the Discloser's possession and disclosed to the Recipient under this Agreement.

If the Recipient becomes legally compelled to disclose any Confidential Information, the Recipient shall provide the Discloser a minimum 7-days written notice and assist the Discloser in seeking a protective order or another appropriate remedy. If the Discloser waives compliance or does not obtain a protective order, the Recipient will furnish only the portion of Confidential Information that is legally required.

Confidential Information does not include information that the Recipient can establish:

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT (NDA)

- (a) was publicly known and made generally available in the public domain prior to the time of disclosure;
- (b) becomes publicly known and made generally available after disclosure through no action or inaction of the Recipient;
- (c) is in the possession of the Recipient, without confidentiality obligations, prior to the time of disclosure;
- (d) is disclosed to the Recipient by a third party without breaching any obligations of confidentiality; or
- (e) is independently developed by the Recipient without the use of or reference to the Discloser's Confidential Information.

2. Non-Use and Non-Disclosure & Non-Solicitation

The Recipient agrees not to use the Confidential Information for any purpose other than evaluating and discussing the potential business relationship with the Discloser.

The Recipient agrees not to disclose any Confidential Information to third parties or to employees of the Recipient, except to those employees who are required to have the information to evaluate or engage in discussions regarding the purpose.

The Recipient will hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence and take reasonable measures to protect it from unauthorized access.

The Recipient will use the Confidential Information solely for the purpose of evaluating and implementing the Clinical Case Management Platform project.

The Recipient will limit disclosure of Confidential Information to its employees, consultants, or authorized representatives who have a "need to know" and who are bound by confidentiality obligations at least as restrictive as those in this Agreement.

The Recipient shall not reverse engineer, disassemble, or decompile any prototypes, software, or other tangible objects embodying the Discloser's Confidential Information. The Recipient agrees not to solicit or entice any employees, customers, or suppliers of the Discloser for a period of 12 Months from the date of this Agreement.

3. Maintenance of Confidentiality

The Recipient agrees to take all reasonable measures to protect the secrecy and avoid the disclosure of the Confidential Information. In no event shall such measures be less than a reasonable standard of confidential data handling. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that Confidential Information contains personal data, the Recipient shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, in compliance with the UK GDPR. Employees of the Recipient who require access to the Confidential Information must first sign a non-use and non-disclosure agreement similar to the provisions of this Agreement. The Recipient shall not make any copies of the Confidential Information unless approved in writing by the Discloser.

4. No Obligation

Nothing in this Agreement obligates either the Discloser or the Recipient to proceed with any transaction, and both parties may terminate discussions at any time. Nothing in this Agreement limits the Discloser's right to disclose or use its own Confidential Information.

5. No Warranty

All Confidential Information is provided "AS IS". The Discloser makes no warranties, express or implied, regarding the accuracy, completeness, or performance of the Confidential Information or any infringement of third-party intellectual property rights.

6. Return of Materials

All documents, tangible objects, and electronic records containing or representing Confidential Information must be promptly returned, deleted, or securely destroyed upon the Discloser's written request. The Recipient shall confirm in writing that all such Confidential Information has been returned, deleted, or destroyed. The Recipient agrees not to retain any copies, backups, or archival records of the Confidential Information unless expressly permitted by the Discloser or required by law.

7. No License

Nothing in this Agreement grants any rights to the Recipient under any of the Discloser's intellectual property, including patents or copyrights, except as expressly set out in this Agreement.

8. Term

This Agreement shall remain in effect until all Confidential Information becomes publicly known and generally available through no action or inaction of the Recipient. If any Confidential Information constitutes "personal data" under UK GDPR, it will be handled strictly according to data retention schedules and data protection laws, regardless of whether it enters the public domain

9. Remedies

The Recipient acknowledges that any breach of this Agreement would result in irreparable harm to the Discloser for which monetary damages may not be an adequate remedy. Accordingly, the Discloser shall be entitled to seek injunctive or equitable relief, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity, without the need to prove actual damages or post a bond.

10. Recipient Information

Any ideas, suggestions, concepts, or information (collectively, “Feedback”) related to the work product, (as described in the contractual document “Contract: Software development project - Clinical Case Management Platform” dated 1st September 2026) disclosed by the Recipient shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Discloser. The Recipient hereby irrevocably assigns to the Discloser all rights, title, and interest in and to such Feedback, including any intellectual property rights therein, and waives any moral rights related to the Feedback, to the extent permitted by law.

11. Binding Agreement

This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties and their successors, but the Recipient may not assign this Agreement without the Discloser’s written consent.

12. Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales, and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the England, United Kingdom.

13. Entire Agreement

This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the Confidential Information and supersedes all prior agreements. Amendments to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties.

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT (NDA)

14. Disclosure of Illegal Acts

This Agreement shall not restrict the Recipient from disclosing information related to the prevention of serious criminal offences or breaches of law, including workplace harassment, bribery, discrimination, or misconduct.

15. Data Protection Compliance

The Recipient agrees to comply with all applicable data protection and privacy laws, including the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and any subsequent legislation. The Recipient shall ensure that any personal data disclosed as part of the Confidential Information is processed lawfully, fairly, and transparently, and is subject to appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure its security. The Recipient shall promptly notify the Discloser in the event of any data breach or unauthorised access to personal data.
